Hats for Headway Day: 22nd May 2015

We'll announce the theme of our 2015 campaign here in due course, so keep checking back for more details.

Hats for Headway Day

Friday 22nd May 2015

Hats for Headway Day is a simple, fun, and easy way to raise money for Headway.

All we ask you to do is wear a hat (as novel and wacky as possible!) for the day in return for a donation. Simple!

Anyone can take part, whether you're having a coffee morning with friends, if you work in an office, or even work in a city centre shop. It's easy to organise and lots of fun to participate in.

Check out the main Hats for Headway Day page for more details.

Thursday 21 May Hallhill Centre, Dunbar
Hats for Headway

Headway East Lothian will be holding our own fun afternoon as part of Action for Brain Injury Week.

Come along between 12.00pm - 2.00pm; wear a hat and join in the fun at the same time as finding out more about Brain Injury and Headway

Games, puzzles, Information, practical tips,

Tea, coffee & home baking

All for a suggested donation of £1.00 to Headway East Lothian, so long as you wear a hat, the sillier the better!
